SUNDAY PRAYER WITH ELDERS

Two elders will be available after the morning service to pray with anyone who seeks personal prayer support. This morning, Elders Loon Sum Loon and Dr Douglas Chan will be present to spend time with you in private prayer.

THE LORD REIGNS

We often sing worship songs that celebrate God's reign—lyrics such as “Our God, you reign forever” and “Our God reigns” resound with praise for his supreme authority, sovereignty and eternal rule over all creation, inspiring us to respond with awe and reverence. A similar scene is captured in Psalm 93, where the psalmist, in just five verses, proclaims God's glory, majesty and eternal kingship.

Today we live in a world that often feels unsettling. Wars are becoming increasingly common, economies more unstable and even the ground beneath us trembles. In such times, Psalm 93 reminds us of the steady rule of a righteous God, whose throne is untouched by chaos. The psalm opens with a vivid image of God robed in majesty, strength wrapped around him like a belt. It shows a king who has always reigned—no struggle nor threat to his crown. The “floods” of chaos, symbols of untamed power in the Ancient Near East culture, cannot shake him. As verse 4 declares: “Mightier than the thunders of many waters, mightier than the waves of the sea, the LORD on high is mighty!” God's throne stands firm; his decrees are trustworthy and his rule is eternal (v5).

We all face our own “floods”—failing health, financial struggles, and broken relationships. Often, life can feel overwhelming, beyond our control. But this psalm assures us that while everything around us shifts, God does not. He is unchanging and he invites us to cling to his promises, truth, and love. Romans 8:38-39 reinforces this: “... neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” No matter how chaotic the “floods” in our lives may be, God does not change, he remains steadfast. Hold fast to him. Entrust your worries to the one who is all mighty, and who holds us securely in his care.

FOCUS ON PRAYER

TODAY'S SPEAKER

Pray for Mr Jeffrey Goh [Bethesda (Bedok-Tampines) Church] who gives us today's ministry message, "Remembering God's Providence in Scary Times" (Psalm 93). Pray that we will have attentive hearts to this message given to us.

THE LORD REIGNS FOREVER

Majestic LORD,

You reign over all creation with power, wisdom and holiness. When the storms of life rage around us, help us trust in your unshakable rule. Keep us faithful to your word and shape us into a holy people who honour you forever. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

CONFERENCE ON AI AND THE CHURCH COMMUNITY

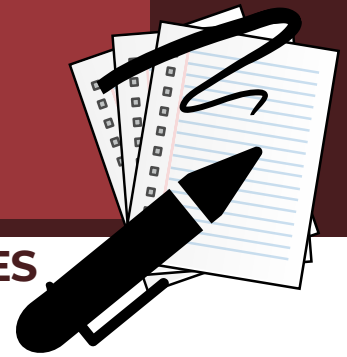

Pray the following for the upcoming conference on AI and the Church Community:

- Pray for the ticketing process to work out smoothly and seamlessly. The launch was on 1 May.
- Pray for the Lord to move people in the church to see the relevance and need for this conference, and to sign up for it.
- Pray for Christians from other churches to come and also invite guests to the conference if they feel that it is relevant to them.
- Pray for the Lord to go before the organisers and clear any obstacles in their ongoing preparations as the team plans the details of the conference and invite panel speakers.
- Pray for the AV system to work well during the conference.
- Pray for the Lord to use the conference mightily to strengthen and expand his kingdom.

THEME: TEACH ME THY WAYS

Verse of the Week: Psalm 93:1 (NIV)

The LORD reigns, he is robed in majesty;
the LORD is robed in majesty and armed with strength;
indeed, the world is established, firm and secure.
